

LEAN LEADER CERTIFICATION

Gemba Academy's Lean Leader Certification

is designed to develop leaders who can align strategy, build capable teams, and sustain Lean thinking across the organization. While Lean Practitioners focus on improving processes, Lean Leaders focus on strengthening the systems, behaviors, and management routines that drive long-term performance.

Accessible & Practical

Develop leadership capability while working in your real environment. There are no exams. Instead, apply concepts directly within your organization with guidance from a Gemba Academy Coach. Expect meaningful reflection, real application, and measurable impact.

Why Gemba Academy

Our certification program combines structured learning with real-world application. Participants receive coaching support and use guided frameworks to strengthen leadership systems, not just complete activities.
